Seasonal Information

Spring in Chiba City March-April

Chiba Castle Sakura Festival
 This is a festival held during the sakura (cherry blossom) flowering season in Inohana Park, which is famous for its sakura. Visitors can also appreciate and admire the romantic sight of sakura at night.

Summer in Chiba City July-August

Makuhari Beach Fireworks Festival
 Every year this festival is held in Makuhari Seaside Park. It is one of the largest in Japan, with over 20,000 fireworks launched. Japanese people enjoy viewing fireworks in "yukata," or very casual type of cotton kimono, while eating snacks and drinking. There are many things to see including launching of giant fireworks, and music and fireworks competitions!
 ※The season has not been finalized in 2020.

Autumn in Ichihara City November-December

Autumn Leaves in Yoro Keikoku Valley
 This is one of the famous sightseeing spots in Chiba Prefecture. The valley was formed by the flow of the Yoro River that runs through Ichihara City. You can see spectacular colored leaves in the autumn. Field mustard flowers and fresh green leaves in the spring are also worth seeing. Furthermore, Onsen (hot springs), hiking, fishing, barbecue, camping and cycling are also enjoyable there.

Winter in Chiba City January-April

Strawberry Picking
 Strawberry picking is one of the greatest attractions of Chiba City. Every spring, people in Japan flock to strawberry gardens for a chance to pick ripe strawberries with their own hands. Visitors can eat lots of berries on the spot, or bring some home as a tasty souvenir. If you are looking for a strawberry picking experience near Tokyo, you may check out the Dragon Farm in Chiba City has attracted visitors from within Japan and beyond.
